The Eurocup Quarterfinals will run from March 15 to 23, 2016

The Quarterfinals will be played in a home-away format, with the overall cumulative score determining the winner of the round, thus, the score of one single game of a quarterfinal round can be tied.

The team that finished in the higher Last 32 place will play the second game of its quarterfinal series at home. If both teams placed the same in the Last 32, the team with more Last 32 victories will play the second game at home.

In case of a tie in both place and victories, the team with the higher cumulative Last 32 score difference will play the second game at home.

The quarterfinal winners will advance to the Eurocup Semifinals.
